As it turned out, the shoe was on the other foot. With such iuminaries as "Cupid" Black of Tale. Chuck Barrett of Cornell, Chris Schlinchter of Syrause. Gardiner of Nebraska, Elwood of Notre Dame and Dunn of Michigan in their lineup, the Naval Reserves have been declared the mearest approach to an All American sleven in actual competition. However, the Naval Reserves soon found out that against the well drilled legions of Rutgers, fired with an enthusiasm for Alma Mater that exceeded any spirit the Newport players could muster, their reputations availed them nothing.

The lads in starlet worked with a precision and rhythm that was beautiful to watch. They played with a harmony that bespoke arduous and careful practite and still more careful and thoroughly capable coaching.

They fellowed the bail so closely that even though they fumbled five times the Naval Beserves were unable to profit by these slips even once, for every time they pixeline. Twice the Naval Reserves was a Rutgers man right on top of the pixeline. Twice the Naval Reserves fumbled, and each time one of Sanford's beys recovered the ball. Old Rivals Resume Football Boot From 44 Yard Line Gives Relations After a Lapse of Eleven Years.

BOSTON, Nov. 24 .- After waiting ever since 1900 the Brown and Dartmouth football teams again met on Braves afternoon when her freshman eleven was Field this afternoon. Eleven years ago beaten by the Princeton cubs by a score Brown beat the Green, setting the series of 9 to 7. Fifteen thousand persons, the minutes of play in the second half, Brown, while it probably would not have been beaten, so strong was its defence late in the game, made the most of its opportunities to take advantage of Dartmouth's fumbling. In no small measure Brown owes its victory first to the fummouth's fumbling. In no small measure Brown owes its victory first to the fum-bling of McDonough and Sid Holbrook and then to the splendid following of the and then to the splendid following of the ball by Albright, the Brown right end, and to Coulter, Brown's capable little quarterback.

Early in the second half McDonough Early in the second haif McDonongh muffed a long punt by Gordon, sent to within ten yards of the Dartmouth goal. Albright recovered the ball for Brown and the Providence attack swiftly drove home a score. Shortly after Sid Holbrook, running back the kickoff, dropped the hall on his corn. the ball on his own 42 yard line and Coulter fell on it for Brown.

Green Bigger Gather.

Brown then began to hammer again, shown then began to hammer again, taking eleven plays, one of which was a forward pass, to cover the forty-two vards and to establish the final count. Except for these two breaks. Brown's ability to make the most of them and demonstrate its punch, the game was played evenly, with Dartmouth having the better chances to produce points. the better chances to produce points. Late in the afternoon Dartmouth un-folded a forward passing game that came within an act of scoring, the Big came within an act of scoring, the Big Green making an eighty yard advance entirely by means of overhead play, but finally miscueing when close to the goal. Dartmouth in fact outplayed Brown, of ground gained from scrimmage is, any criterion. Dartmouth in its seventy-three plays covered 316 yards, while Brown in slaty-one plays from scrimmage gained 147 yards. The difference was, however that the Brunonians had the numb. 147 yards. The difference was, however, that the Brunonians had the punch. The game was a thriller from beginning to end. There were long runs, brilliant tackling in the open and goal line stands that were of the old time five yards to that were of the old time five yards to
